FAMOUS QUARTET

Will Be Seen on the Stage at the High School Auditorium on Next Tuesday Night—Will Give Excellent Program.

The Beulah Buck Quartet, one of the most famous organizations with the Redpath Lyceum Bureau, will be seen on the stage of the High School auditorium on next Tuesday night in the seventh number of the lecture course. A large crowd will doubtless be present to hear these famous singers.

Beulah Buck the manager, reader and second soprano of this company, began her career as reader and impersonator when a country school teacher in Southern Illinois. After studying voice in St. Louis, Mo., for a time her friends persuaded her to give up her dramatic work and prepare herself for opera. She came to Chicago with this intention but after studying with some of Chicago's best teachers, and singing several different roles in various operas, she realized that the road to opera was a long and expensive one—so decided to return to her old field of dramatic art. Then followed her engagement with the Hinshaw Conservatory as teacher of dramatic art and drawing room deportment. From this school, she sent some of her pupils into the Lyceum field with phenomenal success. Then she organized a ladies' quartet of her own for the Lyceum and for seven years now she has been at the head of the Beulah Buck Company, covering the greater part of the United States.

Wilma Whitacre, first contralto of the Beulah Buck Quartet, is a graduate of the Iowa State University, also Northwestern University. Her voice is of the purest quality with a two octave range. Her solo work so delights her hearers she is often recalled the second and third time. This is Miss Whitacre's second season with this company.

The other members of the organization are Miss Isabella Willy, assistant accompanist and second contralto and Miss Helen Walt, accompanist and first soprano.

SELLS FARM

Mr. Thomas L. Ewan & Co., the prominent local real estate men, yesterday sold the John W. Branel farm at Helena Station, containing 250 acres, to John S. Woodward of Sardis. Mr. Woodward gets possession of this farm on March 1, and will move his family there to reside. Mr. Woodward has bought this place with the view of making it his permanent home and he is to be congratulated for securing one of the best farms in Mason county.

WILSON DECIDED ON COURSE

But Time of Action Still Question—No New Steps Are Formulated at Hour's Meeting of President and Cabinet.

Washington, February 16.—The ruthless German submarine campaign and its effects on the United States were discussed late today by President Wilson and the cabinet. The meetings lasted only an hour and afterward it was said no new steps had been decided on.

Arming of American merchantmen and the economic effects of the partial tie-up of shipping out of American ports were the subjects on which the cabinet centered opinion. Secretary McAdoo is compiling a list of vessels held in port and Secretary Redfield is making a comprehensive analysis on the inroads submarines are making on shipping generally.

Consideration is given by the government to all the different phases of situations that have developed since the break in relations with Germany, including the detention of the Yarrowdale prisoners, the crisis with Austria, the plight of Americans in Turkey and Belgian relief. High officials took pains today, however, to emphasize that the great fundamental problem before the nation is the illegal submarine campaign itself. Against this campaign the United States has made the most vigorous protest possible short of war, but the administration realizes that so long as it permits American ships to be held in ports for fear of attack by submarines, it, in effect, is acquiescing in the German policy. This state of affairs, it is admitted, can not be permitted to continue indefinitely.

MRS. W. S. ROSS

Mrs. W. S. Ross died February 15, at her home in Madisonville, Ky., in her eightieth year. She will be buried at her home place.

She is survived by two sons, Dr. W. P. Ross of Erlington, Ky., and Mr. James B. Ross of this city, and one brother, Dr. E. C. Dimmitt of Germantown, Ky. Her husband Dr. W. S. Ross died several years since.

Mrs. Ross was a consecrated member of the Presbyterian Church. She was of a gentle, quiet disposition. She spent a life of usefulness—a high type of a Christian woman.

Tenderest sympathy is extended to the sorrowing family and relatives. Truly—"Blessed are the dead— which die in the Lord."

WILL BE MARRIED

The marriage of Mr. Charles Field Griffin and Miss Grace Bland will occur in the Episcopal Church in New York City next Tuesday morning. Only the immediate families will be present. This item will be of interest to the very great many Maysvillians from the fact that Mr. Griffin's first wife was Miss Annie Plister, with whom he lived for thirty years and to whom was born one son, now of age. The bride was for years a resident of our town and making her home with Mr. and Mrs. George T. Wood for years. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin will live at his beautiful home in Mamaronco, N. Y. The Ledger sends hearty congratulations and best wishes.

MRS. MARY CADY GRANT

Mrs. Mary Cady Grant, who was very well known in this city, died at her home in Cincinnati on Tuesday. The funeral was held yesterday at Dayton, Ohio. Mrs. Grant was a niece of Mrs. Rebecca Wilson of Limestone street this city. She often visited here and is well known to a large number of Maysville people. Miss Lucy Wilson attended the funeral.

OPERA NEXT WEEK

The opera of the Glee Club of the High School will be given on next Wednesday night. The show is a delightful comedy and is well worth seeing.

HELPHENSTINE-CARPENTER

Mr. Forest P. Carpenter, 21, and Miss Ella Helpenstine, 23, both of Fleming county were granted a license to wed in this city yesterday morning.

SPECIAL BARGAIN RATE

Courier-Journal by mail one year $4.00. Good only this month. Subscribe at once. DE NUZIE, Agent.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Central Presbyterian Church will meet with Mrs. Dr. Franklin on East Third street Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A full attendance requested.

Miss Elizabeth Barker of Augusta, accompanied her sister, who was on her way to Winchester, to this city yesterday. While here Miss Barker was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Insko.

FOREST AVENUE MEETING CONTINUES

Although the Rev. W. H. Morris was compelled to return to his home in Ashland, Ky., on account of ill health, the meeting at the Forest Avenue M. E. Church continues with great interest. The meeting will continue until Sunday evening and possibly longer should the interest continue. Mr. Morris has promised to return to the city if his condition will permit.

DINNER POSTPONED

The Louisville Evening Post says: Mr. and Mrs. Burwell K. Marshall have postponed their dinner for Miss Zorayada Cochran, of Maysville, from this evening until Monday evening. Miss Cochran, who has been the guest of Miss Frances Garnett, will come in Monday to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Pearce in Reeser Place.

LIBRARY NOT OPENED

The Public Library still remains closed on account of the accident to furnace heating the building some weeks ago. The plumbers were compelled to send to Chicago for a new boiler and there has been a great deal of delay in getting the thing fixed. Miss Richeson, the librarian, hopes to have the library open next week.

SALE MONDAY

Mr. Calvert Early having rented his farm, located three and one-half miles Northeast of Mayslick on the Mitchell pike will sell on Monday, February 19, at 10 o'clock all stock, crops and farm implements. A full description of the articles to be sold will be found in today's Ledger.

A FINE DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cook of Commerce street are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine daughter at their home yesterday morning.

FINED FOR BEING DRUNK

In Police Court yesterday afternoon James Deering was fined $5.50 for being drunk. He paid the amount and was released.

A BIG FEATURE, BRYANT WASH-BURN

In his masterpiece "Skinner's Dress Suit" at the Pastime Monday, February 19, don't miss it.

FERRY STILL OUT

The ferryboat between South Ripley and Ripley has not been running for more than a week and those who have procured wet goods from that city have been compelled to cross here and go down via buggy or auto. For about three days only the Maysville ferry was the only one between Cincinnati and Ironton that was running. The Laurence was fitted with a steel hull last summer and is one of the best ferries on the Ohio.

WILL PUBLISH HISTORY

On Monday the Ledger will, as promised its patrons several days ago publish the history of the Battle of Upper Blue Licks, which occurred in the latter part of the eighteenth century. The history is by Prof. R. S. Cottrell, head of the department of history in one of the large universities of United States. Prof. Cottrell has made an exhaustive study of the subject and the story is very interesting.

GOING TO TOLEBORO

The Dandy Dixie Minstrels will go to Toleboro tonight to give their show in that town. This minstrel is getting quite a name for itself in this section and they give a really creditable performance.
